

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
 WASHINGTON, DC 20217

WILLIAM MARK SCOTT,)
)
 Petitioner,)
)
 v.) Docket No. 7809-17W.
)
 COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,)
)
 Respondent)
)
)
)

ORDER

For cause and for the reasons discussed at the hearing held before the Court on May 21, 2018, it is ORDERED that on or before Monday, June 18, 2018, respondent’s counsel shall inform the Court in a written statement:

1. Whether, after February 12, 2014, i.e., the date petitioner submitted his whistleblower claim in docket No. 7809-17W, the Internal Revenue Service examined or proceeded with any other administrative or judicial action with respect to any individual or entity involving the bond issuances at issue, including but not limited to, the conduit borrower, any insurance provider(s), and any record owner(s) of the bonds;
2. whether any changes were made to the above mentioned individual’s or entity’s Federal income tax liabilities after February 12, 2014; and
3. whether any monies were paid to the Government by the above mentioned individual or entity as a consequence of such examination(s) or proceeding(s) by the Internal Revenue Service.

SERVED May 31 2018

Respondent's counsel shall make the above mentioned statements regardless of whether respondent believes the action took place, or proceeds were collected, on the basis of the information that petitioner provided.

(Signed) Julian I. Jacobs
Judge

Dated: Washington, D.C.
May 30, 2018